

It is a shame that the American people cannot choose whether or not they will accept telemarketing calls. At this point, anyone who does not want to receive annoying telemarketing calls has chosen to add his/her name to the Do Not Call List, but that isn't good enough. What right do telemarketers have to force their way into our homes, by fighting for the right to override our decision. I do not wish to receive solitication calls on a daily basis. I feel I should have the right to make that decision for myself regardless of the opinions of the telemarketers. Thank you for allowing me to voice my opinion.
